

Institutional Overview

Preface

Laramie County Community College (herein after “LCCC” or “the College”) is a public comprehensive community college serving Laramie and Albany counties in Wyoming. This state-designated service area represents 7 percent of the state’s square acreage and approximately 23 percent of

---

2013-2014, the College employed a total of 380 regular, benefited positions, with 26 administrators, 80